

Everyone needs Time to Think.

Plan for some on October 11, 2019!

Join me, Marianne Bartley, Ed.D., at Live2Lead Lebanon County.

Live2Lead is an annual leadership event created by John C. Maxwell, the world's #1 Leadership Authority. It is being broadcast from Atlanta, Georgia on October 11, 2019 to 300 sites across the world.

For the first time, Live2Lead will be presented locally, at HACC Lebanon Campus. This event is for business people, entrepreneurs, educators, and other curious people who are driven to become better than they are today. Via simulcast, access world class teaching as John C. Maxwell, Rachel Hollis, Angela Ahrendts, Marcus Buckingham, and Chris Hogan engage us on leadership, teamwork, and personal growth topics. Read more about the speakers on the attachment.

Why participate? Your presence and participation will add to the overall experience, and you will be equipped and empowered to lead your organization with renewed passion and purpose.

Perhaps you could fly to Atlanta, Georgia, and join the live event there. But why spend more time and money when you can experience the same training right here in Lebanon, with people who care about THIS community?

Following the simulcast, I will facilitate a brief discussion and activities relevant to our needs. Breakfast and lunch are included.

Proceeds benefit local causes, including the Center for Entrepreneurial Excellence, the YMCA Youth Center, and United Way. Register at the site below!
